CHURCH PENSION GROUP HOSTS CONVERSATION ON 2023 SUSTAINABLE INVESTING LANDSCAPE AND STRATEGIES

NEW YORK, NY—January 31, 2023—The Church Pension Group (CPG), a financial services organization that serves The Episcopal Church, announced that it will host a virtual conversation with industry experts to discuss the current sustainable investing landscape and strategies investors are using to align their values and their finances. Individuals will also gain valuable insights around CPG’s approach to socially responsible investing (SRI), including impact investing, Environmental, Social, & Governance (ESG) incorporation, and its ability to affect change through active shareholder engagement.

The event is part of CPG’s ongoing Insights & Ideas series of discussions on SRI. Individuals interested in attending the event, which will take place on Thursday, February 16, 2023, from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM ET, can register at cpg.org/Insights&Ideas.

“The sustainable investing market continues to evolve and grow in popularity among faith-based investors,” said Mary Kate Wold, CEO and President of CPG. “We are pleased to host this important conversation to discuss the current landscape and issues investors are considering in 2023, such as climate change, diversity, and human rights, and how to address these important topics in an investment portfolio.”

The panelists will include Allyson McDonald, Chief Executive Officer, Boston Common Asset Management; Bhakti Mirchandani, Managing Director, Responsible Investing, Trinity Wall Street; Anne Richardson, Senior Program Director for Investor Relations, Episcopal Church Foundation; and Christopher Rowe, Managing Director at CPG.

Videos and presentations from prior Insights & Ideas discussions, which focused on climate change, investing in economically disadvantaged communities, faithful investing, positive impact investing, and sustainable investing, can be viewed at cpg.org/Insights&Ideas.
